To be eligible, a person shall do all the following on an annual basis:

- 1)Be the owner of and occupy as a homestead the property for which an exemption is requested.
- 2)File a claim with the Assessor or Board of Review, accompanied by federal and state income tax returns for all persons residing in the homestead, including any property tax credit returns filed in the immediately preceding year of in the current year.
- 3)Produce a valid drivers' license or other form of identification if requested.
- 4)Produce a deed, land contract, or other evidence of ownership of property for which an exemption is requested if requested.
- 5)Meet the Federal Poverty Income Guidelines as defined and determined annually by the United States Office of Management.
- 6)Meet additional eligibility requirements as determined by the township board, including:
  - A) The applicant must have total household assets (excluding the real estate value of the home stead) of less than $15,000. The asset value shall be determined by the Assessor and Board of Review.
  - B) The applicant's net homestead property tax liability must be at least 5% of the total house hold income.
  - C) The Board will also consider all revenue and non-revenue producing assets owned by petitioner in its deliberations as to whether relief should be granted.
  - D) The application for exemption must be for homestead property that is not owned by a corporation.
  - E) A successful applicant may be subject to personal investigation by the Township. This would be done to verify information or statements made to the Assessor or Board of Review concerning their hardship tax exemption claim.
  - F) The Assessor may tape record and will keep minutes of all proceeding before the Board of Review and all meetings must be held at the Township Hall.

BE IT ALSO RESOLVED that the board of review shall follow the above stated policy and federal guidelines in granting or denying an exemption; unless the Board of Review determines there are substantial and compelling reasons why there should be deviation from the policy and federal guidelines in which these are communicated in writing to claimant.
